The natural stone pots are authentic vintage pieces sourced from villages across Indonesia. Hand-carved by local artisans decades ago, each pot carries the marks of time; weathered textures, natural patina, and subtle imperfections that speak to its history and cultural origin.

Their organic shapes and aged stone give them a timeless, earthy aesthetic that blends beautifully with both rustic and contemporary spaces. Available in various sizes and forms, they're durable enough for outdoor landscapes yet refined enough to serve as striking indoor planters. Each piece is truly one-of-a-kind, connecting nature, heritage, and craftsmanship adding a grounded, sculptural presence to any space.
